Palestine, Texas, October 30th. 1913.

Hon. Geo. W. Kyser,
Pension Commissioner,
Austin, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I herewith enclose pension application of Mr. R. F. Adams, who has lived in this County some 37 years.

Mr. Adams was with the army that surrendered at Applomatax Court House, at the close of the war. He has failed to locate any of his comrades, and his only evidence is his discharge, which he attaches, and which seems to be genuine. I would suggest that you look at the roll of his Company, and I believe he should have a pension if the roll shows his name. We have both tried to locate survivors of this Company and have failed. I know Mr. Adams to be reliable and honest. He has always been a member of the Confederate Camps here and has taken a leading part. He showed me several old letters which he received while he was in the war, and which go to prove that he was in the war. And I know of no better evidence than his old battered discharge which he herewith hands you.

I ask that the pension be granted, ~~and~~ because I think he is in need, and that he is entitled to one.

Yours very truly,

E. V. Swift, County Judge.

Please send Mr. Adams, at Frankston, Texas, a postal acknowledging receipt of application.
