Dear Madam:

I am in receipt of your application for confederate pension but cannot approve same on account of your age.

The Pension Laws of this State require that the widow applicant show birth prior to the close of the year 1861. Your age as shown in your application, 52 years, indicates that you were born much later than the close of the year 1861.

I regret that I cannot approve your application at this time but same will be kept on file in this office and may be renewed at any time in the future should the laws of this State be amended so as to permit the approval of same.

Yours very truly,

KR/ms

COMPTROLLER.
