

Anderson County History Forum

A celebration of our local history!

22 March 2007

The Third Annual Anderson County History Forum will be here before you know it—April 28. You won't want to miss this fun day of history and fellowship. There is only a short window for registration for this sell-out event so don't delay in sending in your registration form now. The absolute final deadline for reservations to be received is April 16! It's first come, first served on reservations, so don't wait until the last minute and risk not getting a ticket.

The forum lasts from 9:30 a.m. until about 2 p.m. Begin the day enjoying breakfast pastries, juice, and coffee with old friends—some you may not have seen in years! Don't miss the opportunity to learn more about Palestine and Anderson County from some of our leading researchers and historians. Speakers have only fifteen minutes each to tell their wide-ranging stories of interesting, little-known, or unusual historical events. Enjoy a tasty boxed lunch and afternoon snacks, take an optional quiz to test your knowledge of local history, perhaps win one of many door-prizes. Visit the booths of clubs, vendors, and booksellers. View old photographs projected so all can see. Maybe you can identify a few for us. Visit with other history buffs and old friends who are also attending the History Forum. The day ends with a historical play (!) with characters such as Mary Kate Hunter, John H. Reagan, and ?????? See all the local exhibits, pictures, and artifacts in the Museum before the program begins.

Building improvements and sound system changes are assuring us of improved sound quality for all to enjoy the talks. DVD quality will also be improved with multi-camera recording and sound plugged right into the recording system to block out scooting chairs and coughing. Order your DVDs along with your tickets to get the best price. DVDs make ideal gifts for history-minded friends and family who can't attend.

For more information, watch for upcoming articles in the Palestine Herald Press and in the library's Wednesday column. Or go to www.palestine.lib.tx.us and click on Anderson County History Forum.

No refunds after April 16. Email History Forum at History_Forum@palestine.lib.tx.us if you have questions. (There is an underscore between History and Forum.)

We look forward to having you join us April 28 for a memorable day of local history!
